

Professional Acknowledgement

Jamestown Community School has a progressive leadership team supported by a highly qualified teaching and support staff that are effectively meeting the learning needs of our students and our community. Recent acknowledgements of quality teaching and learning include:

- The only rural school in South Australia invited to be a member of the National Science, Technology Educational Leverage Referencing Project (Australian Academy of Technological Sciences and Engineering)
- One of two South Australian schools invited to contribute to the Charles Sturt University review of Renewing Teacher Education for Rural & Regional Australia
- Contributor to the South Australian Teaching for Effective Learning Framework (SA TfEL) as a result of our immersion in Learning 2 Learn (L2L) initiative
- One of four South Australian schools to be selected in the Planning for Implementation Support Project in the Australian Mathematics Curriculum
- Regional winner of the National Science and Engineering Challenge 2010 and 2011 and successful participant in the South Australian State Finals
- Establishment of Regional Trade Training Centre in Engineering & Metal Fabrication
- Duke of Edinburgh Award embedded in Year 9 Integrated Studies
- Participant school in 'Operation Flinders'
- Jamestown Community School recognised by Sporting SA for the implementation of the Nationally Certified Sport and Recreation initiative at the SACE level
- Erin McCarthy: Pierre de Coubertin National Award 2011 as a result of excellence in Sport and Recreation Certificate
- Paige Adams: recipient of the Outstanding Trainee 2012 Southern Flinders Business Employment & Training Awards [employed at Boston Ford Jamestown]
- Bradley Peacock: recipient of the Outstanding Apprentice 2012 Southern Flinders Business Employment & Training Awards [employed at Catford Engineering Jamestown]
- Dylan Sparks: recipient of SA's Most Outstanding School Based Apprentice 2011 [employed at Boston Ford Jamestown]